

Weekly Wave

THIS WEEK IN KINDERGARTEN:

November 12, 2010

Letter of the Week was: Ll

We worked on the letter Ll this week. We think that this is a super easy letter to write and got the hang of the letters quickly! We brainstormed our list of words beginning with Ll. For our letter of the week craft we got to finger paint the wind and showed letters blowing in the wind.

In Math:

We finished our chapter on the numbers 6-12. We are working on counting and writing the numbers. We are also working on completing a set. We were introduced to number patterns, which proved to be a little tricky. We learned to figure out if we need to add or take away. Next we decided how many we had to add or take away. We will continue to work on this.

We're Working on Our Math Vocabulary:

- Number Pattern: what we do over and over to get to the next number

Sight Words: can/see

We are working on two new sight words: "can" and "see". We worked in our journals this week slide show coming this weekend! We drew a picture of a log and wrote a sight word sentence about the log. Two new sight words coming next week!

Notes/Reminders:

Winter is Coming

The weather is changing and so should our wardrobe! Our school weather policy is that we go outside unless the wind shield is below 21°. Please make sure your child is dressed appropriately and wearing a coat.

Literacy/Math Day

I am so thankful to the parents that came to help us with our Literacy/Math Day. We had a ton of fun playing some games that reinforce the concepts we've learned in class. I hope you've been enjoying the games at home!

Suggested Activity:

Read to your child, pointing to the words as you go. When one of our sight words comes up, let them read it to you! This will help reinforce the sight words we are learning.
