

Monday Message

RED WEEK:

Math: We will start to learn about graphs, line graphs, bar graphs, input/output tables and venn diagrams.

Homework: Due Friday. Keep reading your take home books and returning them.

Sight Words: animal, of, how, some, make, why

Grammar: sentence parts

Phonics: short Ii and r-blends

Spelling Words: in, sit, trip, will, six, grin, did, big (we will pre-test Monday and test Friday).

Science: Shadows

UPCOMING EVENTS:

September 29th- All school picture (Wear RED)

October 7th- Field Trip money $$$$$ and permission slip due!!

October 31st- Fall party at 2:00 (if you signed up to bring something Heather Pinder will be calling to remind you)

November 11th- Field Trip to Crown Center

I have added a sticker to the front of your child's planner. This sticker explains spelling city and how to maneuver through the website. All of our spelling words for this year are entered into the website. Happy Studying!

As Elizabeth (my student teacher) and I transition back to a regular schedule you may see more behavior reminders. I will have to make sure they understand my expectations very quickly as we are right on our way to the end of our first quarter! Your child had a great experience with Miss Filkins and we wish her our best!

Smiles,

Miss Wiseman ☺

Poem of the Week:

Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious!
Even though the sound of it is something quite atrocious!
If you say it loud enough, you'll always sound precocious,
Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious!

Anti-Bullying Awareness Week!
Mon. wear blue-bully prevention
Tue. wear red-compliment day
Wed. wear yellow- help day
Thur. wear black- appreciation day
Fri. wear green- buddy day