

School Supplies, in October?

We want to thank everyone who donated supplies and money to help our students this year. It means a lot to be able to start the year with a new box of crayons or to have a new backpack. The bad news is these school supplies are needed every year. The good news is these supply lists change very little. Students will always need paper, pencils, backpacks, crayons, erasers, rulers, etc...

Your donation can put a smile on a face and help a family in need. Often we only think about school supplies in July and August. Walking through the aisles of the many stores around our area, I have noticed that the backpacks are now on the clearance racks, folders are half price, and pencil packs and paper prices have been slashed. If you would like to donate school supplies now might be the time to shop for them. Some items that are on the normal supply lists that may be on the clearance shelves are:

Backpacks

Crayons- 8 or 24 packs, NO glitter/neon please

2 Pocket Folders- pockets on bottom, no prongs
